

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

14th June, 2004

Dear Mr. Donovan

The Queen has asked me to thank you for your letter of 7th June expressing your disquiet about a firm called Hakluyt and Company Limited.

Her Majesty has noted the content of your letter, but I should explain that The Queen, as Supreme Governor, would not intervene in the day-to-day running of the Church of England, however, you were of course quite correct to write to the Archbishop of Canterbury and to Lord Falconer with your concerns.

Yours sincerely,

MRS. GILL MIDDLEBURGH
Chief Clerk

Alfred Donovan, Esq.
